*If the animal you would like to adopt is not listed, please contact the Friends of the Zoo. Due to their popularity, some animals may be adopted concurrently.

*All adopted animals remain in the care and custody of the Jackson Zoo.

*Because zoo animals are living creatures, they can become ill, die or they can be moved off exhibit or to other facilities. The Zoo retains the right to remove any animal from public display. If your adopted animal leaves the Zoo, dies or is moved off exhibit, your gift will still be used and appreciated for the remainder of your adoption year.

Adoptions are good for one year and are renewable.
