

Join Us This Saturday, 9/17
for International Red Panda Day and Carousel Day at the Zoo.

International Red Panda Day

The world's only international awareness campaign dedicated to red pandas.

This is your opportunity to participate in our own version of the Olympic Games, the Red Panda Games, and become a Red Panda Ranger.

A Red Panda Ranger is a special title given to children who help us spread the word about red pandas.

Red Pandas are endangered in the wild. However, most people have never heard of a red panda. We need your help to let other people know that red pandas exist and that they are endangered.

Children may participate by completing tasks which earns them a passport stamped with the five red panda home range countries and an official Red Panda Ranger certificate, both personalized with your name. Your picture may also be taken so we can post your name and photo on our website and newsletter.

Activities include:

- Red Panda Coloring Mask
- Little Lost Firefox: an Interactive Story
- Firefox Fun Memory Card Game
- Pandas in Peril Human Board Game
