New Tiger Exhibit Set to Open!

Friday, April 2nd!

The day has finally come! The Zoo's three Sumatran tigers, Kipling, Taymore and Emerson will be introduced to their new, spacious and natural habitat. Complete with trees, a waterfall and a pool, the new home has 10 times the space of their old enclosure at 8000 square feet. The tigers have been enjoying their indoor holding area/night quarters for the last few weeks and are now ready to explore their new outdoor area! Come join us and see them as they discover their new home!!

Have Breakfast With The Easter Bunny and your Zoo Animal Friends!

Saturday, April 3rd

7a.m.-9a.m.

Join us at the Zoo, on the Saturday before Easter, to enjoy a delicious family buffet-style breakfast at the Zoo Cafe. As you eat, visit with the Easter Bunny himself and Zoo Mascot, Zany Zebra! Ever seen an ape hunt for eggs?? Visit the Zoo's Chimps, Orangutans and Bears on a walking tour with Zoo Staff and watch as these animals are given special Easter treats for their breakfasts?

Space is limited so reserve your spot now by calling (601) 352-2500

Story-Time Tuesday

Tuesday, April 6th

10a.m-11a.m.

This month the Zoo will host a member of the Jackson Fire Department to serve as their 'local hero' and read to children who would like to meet a real firefighter!

Watch for the Big Red truck at the Front of the Zoo!
