

The Jackson Zoo Needs You! Learn. Teach. Enjoy.

Join the Docents at the Jackson Zoo to learn and teach others about animals.

A docent is a volunteer who is 18 or over and loves to teach others about the animals and habitats represented within the Zoo. The Jackson Zoo will hold an informational session on Saturday, May 22nd from 11a.m. - 1 p.m. for people who think they may interested.

So come out, meet some docents, and learn about what it means to be a part of this team! It is not a commitment to the program, just an opportunity to see if it is right for you. We will talk about requirements, perks and opportunities that come with the privilege of being a docent.

A light lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP to Anne Grinnan, Education Curator, at agrinnan@jacksonzoo.org by Wednesday May 18th to attend.

Applications may be downloaded on our website www.jacksonzoo.org

Zoo admission is $8.00 for adults, $5.00 for children ages 2-12, and $7.20 for senior citizens (65 and over). Children under the age of 2 and Friends of the Zoo members are admitted free of charge.

The Jackson Zoo is located at 2918 West Capitol Street in Jackson and is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Visit www.jacksonzoo.org to check out exciting special events, animal updates, one-of-a-kind education programs, membership and adoption packages, and so much more. The Jackson Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums (AZA). The AZA is America's leading accrediting organization that sets rigorous, professional standards for zoos and aquariums. The AZA is building North American's largest wildlife conservation movement by engaging and inspiring the 143 million annual visitors to its member institutions and their communities to care about and take action to help protect wildlife.
